

2017 IWWF Disabled Athlete of the Year Female

Delphine Le Sausse (MP4) – FRA:

Delphine has had a great year, competing at the World Disabled Championships as well as at tournaments in France and Italy. She won gold in slalom, tricks and overall and bronze in jump in the Women's Seated Division at the World Disabled Championships along with the prestigious title of the best Women's overall skier of the tournament (Tournament Overall Category). Delphine set two World (and E&A) MP4 records, 3.00/46/18.25 in slalom and 1,340 in tricks. She closed the season ranked 1st in slalom, tricks and overall, 2nd in jump in the Women's E&A ranking, and in addition ranked 1st in slalom, tricks and overall in the men and women combined E&A ranking. She also won the tricks title in the E&A EuroTour and placed 2nd in slalom (men and women combined).

