

MALE SKIER OF THE YEAR:	2017
Name:	Ryan Dodd
Date of birth:	Nov-21-1984
Confederation, Country:	PANAM, Canada

Current Elite ranking:	1st
Current IWWF ranking:	1st
World Open Championships:	1st in 2017
Other competitions results:	1st place at the 2017 Nautique Masters whit a distance of 74.1m 1st place at the 2017 Vladimir Filin Memorial whit a distance of 75.4m 1st place at the 2017 Canadian Open Masters whit a distance of 68.7m 1st place at the 2017 Strokes Pro Am whit a distance of 71.9m 1st place at the 2017 World Open Champ. whit a distance of 68.4m

Along the way, he set a new World Record of 77.4 m at the Space Coast tournament in July This is Ryan's first World Record after knocking at the door for several years.

Additional comments: Why is this rider elected, any special attributes, why should she be elected as the World rider of the year?	Ryan Dodd had a breakout year in 2017. He won every single Elite Tournament jump event except for an early season 2nd place at Moomba. His wins include the Masters, the Vladimir Filin Memorial, the Ray Stokes Pro Am, the Canadian Open and finally the World Championships. He also placed 1st in every other tournament entered in 2017. Ryan also acts as the Pan American skier representative on the Athletes Advisory Council to the IWWF Tournament Council as well as being involved in tournament promotion and organization.
---	---